

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

Subscriptions: One year, $3; one month, 25 cts; single copy, 1 cent.

Members of the Publishers' Press.—The latest telegraphic news from all parts of the world are received by the Daily Times up to the hour of going to press.

Frank E. Langley, Publisher.

Published Every Weekday Afternoon.

Entered at the postoffice at Barre as second class matter.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 6, 1903.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

The American Newspaper Directory is an annual directory of newspapers and their circulations. To secure a statement therein the publisher must furnish a signed detailed statement of a year's issues. Printer's Ink, a weekly journal issued by the directory publishers, in its issue of August 5, contains the following:

"In the latest issue of the American Newspaper Directory the circulations of the two daily papers of Barre, Vermont, are rated as follows:

Telegraph, 3,757.

Times, 2,704.

No one doubts the accuracy of the Times rating but it has recently been made apparent that the Telegraph rating is fraudulent."

If Uncle Sam's guardians are as proficient in making trouble for "the enemy" as they were for Barre people the other evening then the enemy has our pity.

Those St. Louis hoodlums are faring hard. Another has just been sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. It should be a salutary lesson to possible hoodlums in the future, but it probably won't be.

The no-license town of St. Johnsbury had three arrests for intoxication last month. During July of the previous year there were 14 arrests for the same charge. Whichever side of the liquor question you may be on draw your own conclusions.

An item in the St. Johnsbury Caledonian tells of the return of a former resident after an absence of 52 years, and that he was "greatly impressed with the growth" of St. Johnsbury. Well, give a town over half a century to grow in, and it would be a pretty slow town that couldn't show some signs of growth.

Once more Alex. Donnet of St. Johnsbury spins the crown, declaring that he will not be a candidate for governor of Vermont. Why not give the Squire a little rest on that subject? We fancy that his "no" in this case has more positiveness than that of Grover Cleveland in the presidential talk, and means no.

It may be interesting to know that the per capita wealth in money of the country is steadily increasing, although the increase may never find its way into our pockets. On August 1 the per capita circulation was $29.55, and it is confidently expected that it will reach $30 before the end of the year. The total money in circulation is $2,382,015,406.

A former Northfield young man had the unusual and not altogether desirable privilege of witnessing a lynching at Danville, Ill., recently, and he characterized it as "such a sickening sight that I'll never forget it." In describing the scenes when the mob surrounded the jail to get the Negro culprit, he said that thousands of people crowded to the doors and that he pushed to the front "to see what was being done," which assertion leads us to believe that by far the greater part of the crowd was actuated only by the same impulse as this young man, a desire to see what was going on. And that the "mob," so-called, generally consists of a comparatively small number of individuals, while the vast majority of spectators are supinely indifferent, refusing to become a party to such horrors, but nevertheless unwilling to lift a finger in defense of law, lacking a leader to rouse them from their lethargy. Were the right person to arise on such an occasion, it is probable that many of the atrocities which are committed by a comparatively few men might be averted.

During this weather boys need special protection—the heat is enough without clothing that is not comfortable.

One's purse also needs special protection from the chaos of advertised "bargain sales."

Here your money is insured by our rule, "Money returned if goods are not what you thought they were—or if you change your mind." It's no trick at this store to get your money back.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

The Vermont state and Rutland county joint fair will be held at Rutland city September 8, 9, 10 and 11.

The bar docket for the September term of the Rutland county court which opens September 2, contain 204 civil cases, 73 chancery, and 7 criminal cases.

The Baptist churches in Grafton and North Springfield are to observe their 100th anniversary August 30 and 31, and a union centennial of these churches and the Chester church will be held at Chester the week following.

A cablegram received from Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Auld of Burlington yesterday announces that with their son, Paymaster G. P. Auld, they sailed from San Juan, Porto Rico, Tuesday. On arrival at New York Paymaster Auld will be taken to the United States naval hospital at Brooklyn.

Miss Mary L. Saxton of Randolph was one of four persons who passed the examination for admission to the city library training class for the coming year in Springfield, Mass., and Miss Saxton will go to Springfield about the first of October to begin her studies in the training department.

Forest Park farm, which is situated about a mile north of Brandon, is to be sold at public auction with all its implements and tools, August 10 and 20. It is said that there has been more than $100,000 invested at Forest Park farm and that everything is as good as new. The farm contains its own water system, electric light plant and creamery and is stocked with high bred horses and Ayrshire and Normandy cattle.

In addition to the donations by the late Silas L. Griffith to the town of Danby, which have already been mentioned in this paper it is now learned that a contract had been made by Mr. Griffith for a receiving vault to be constructed in the cemetery for the free use of the town. Work will be begun on it within a few weeks. The work of constructing a public library for Danby, plans for which have already been drawn, may be temporarily delayed by the death of Mr. Griffith but the delay will be only temporary as provisions had been made in his will for its construction and endowment.

Facts About the Bible.

The crowned prince of Granada, heir to the Spanish throne, imprisoned by order of the crown for fear he might aspire to the throne, was kept in solitary confinement in the old prison at the Palace of Skulls, Madrid. After 33 years in this living tomb death came to his release, and the following remarkable researches, taken from the Bible and marked with an old nail on the rough walls of his cell, told how the brain sought employment through the weary years.

In the Bible the word "Lord" is found 1,833 times; the word "Jehovah" 6,855 times; the word "reverend" but once; the eighth verse of the 97th Psalm is the middle verse of the Bible. The ninth verse of the eighth chapter of Esther is the longest; the thirty-fifth verse, eleventh chapter of St. John is the shortest. In the 107th Psalm, four verses are alike, the eighth, fifteenth, twenty-first and thirty-first. Each verse of the 138th Psalm ends alike. No names or words with more than six syllables are found in the Bible. The thirty-seventh chapter of Isaiah and nineteenth chapter of II Kings are alike.

The word "girl" occurs but once in the Bible, and that in the third verse, third chapter of Joel. There are found in both books of the Bible 3,538,488 letters; 778,674 words, 32,373 verses, 1,184 chapters and 66 books. The 20th chapter of the Acts of the Apostles is the finest chapter to read. The most beautiful chapter is the 23rd Psalm. The most inspiring promises are John 11:27-37; Matthew 9:28, and Psalm 37:34.

The first verse of the fifteenth chapter of Isaiah is the one for a new convert. All who flatter themselves with vain boasting should read the 6th of Matthew. All humanity should learn the 8th of St. Luke, from the twentieth verse to its ending.

Early fall style hats are now on sale by A. A. Smith & Bro., in soft and stiff and in black and brown. The brown hats, which have been out of style for a few seasons past, are coming back some this fall.
